Date: Friday 13th October 2017

Time: 9.30am until 4.30pm

Location

The Counselling and Family Centre, 40 Mayors Road, Altrincham, Cheshire, WA15 9RP

Trainer

Victoria Abadi. Post Grad Dip in Counselling (1997). FDAP Certified (Federation of Alcohol and Drug Practitioners). Registered MBACP. Victoria has worked as a specialist addiction counsellor for 20 years and coordinates the Family & Addiction Service at the Counselling & Family Centre alongside working in private practice with a wide range of addictions and addictive disorders.

Who is the course for?

This course will suit anyone who already has a basic understanding and experience of the counselling process and is interested in how addictions affect the family both individually and as a system. This will help to improve the understanding, knowledge and experience of those wishing to work with addiction within the family. This 1 day workshop is designed to be part of the full 7 Day Families and Addiction Programme offered over the year. It is also suitable as a 'stand-alone' day, with a focus of helping practitioners to engage with family members both individually and as part of the family system who are affected by addiction.

Aims of course

- To understand what addictive processes are
- To understand how the addictive process occurs
- To learn ways of working with addictive processes within the family as a whole and with individuals
- To be able to identify the signs and symptoms of addictive processes
- To know what help is in the community for addictive processes
- To understand the effect of addictive processes on the family
